•Weather Cancellations: We do not follow area school schedules. Although schools may be cancelled early in the day, road conditions often improve allowing you safe travel to your lesson or class. We will post notification on our Facebook page and contact you by email or phone if your lesson or class is canceled. Guests are not permitted to stay during a lesson. Often children find themselves under great pressure wanting to please or impress their parents and distracted by their peers. Students open up so much more in cases when their parents are not present, allowing the instructor and student to achieve their lesson goals. It's amazing how quickly their nerves fall away once their "audience" is gone.
